

Resolving Your Complaints

How did we do in 2017?

Our Role

In Resolving Your Complaints

At HSBC, we are committed to providing you with the best customer experience we can. We encourage you to let us know, as soon as possible, whenever our products or services do not meet your expectations so we may promptly address your concerns.

Step 1

Start with your HSBC Representative

Please feel free to reach out to us by telephone, email, secure internet banking message, letter or in person, if we have failed to provide you with the level of service you expect to receive.

We will acknowledge your complaint in person, by telephone or in writing. We will provide you with the contact information of an HSBC representative from whom you can obtain updates on the status of your complaint. Following a detailed investigation, we will provide you with a response to your complaint in the agreed upon timeframe, containing details of our investigation, our decision and an explanation on how we reached this decision.

Step 2

Contact HSBC Customer Relations

The majority of our customers' complaints are resolved by one of our HSBC representatives. If your complaint has not been resolved to your complete satisfaction despite their best efforts, the HSBC representative will escalate matters on your behalf to the HSBC Customer Relations Office. If you wish, you can escalate your complaint to the Customer Relations Office.

To ensure your concerns are fully addressed in a prompt and efficient manner, the HSBC representative will provide the Customer Relations Office with the following:

- Pertinent facts related to your complaint
- Name and location of the HSBC representative with whom you initiated this matter
- Names of any other individuals involved

The HSBC Customer Relations Office will acknowledge receipt of your complaint by email, telephone or mail, according to your preference. They will provide you with their contact information to enable you to obtain details on the status of your complaint. Following a detailed investigation, they will provide you with a written response in the agreed upon timeframe, containing the details of their investigation, their decision and an explanation on how they reached this decision.

The Customer Relations Office also handles customer complaints directed to the Office of the President and Chief Executive Officer.

Step 3

Contact HSBC Commissioner of Complaints

If you are not completely satisfied with the resolution reached by the HSBC Customer Relations Office, you may escalate your complaint to the HSBC Commissioner of Complaints.

The HSBC Commissioner of Complaints

HSBC has established a Commissioner of Complaints to help with unresolved matters if you feel your complaint has not been adequately addressed. The HSBC Commissioner of Complaints will only address your complaint once it has been fully investigated by the Customer Relations Office.

The HSBC Commissioner of Complaints will acknowledge receipt of your complaint by email, telephone, or mail according to your preference. On completion of a detailed investigation, the HSBC Commissioner of Complaints will provide you with a written response containing details of its investigation, its decision, and an explanation on how they reached this decision.

2017 The Year in Review

How many complaint cases did we review?

Of the 53 cases handled by the HSBC Commissioner of Complaints, 46 were related to HSBC Bank Canada and 7 were related to subsidiaries of HSBC Bank Canada.
